Minutes for March 2017 were approved via acclamation.

Chief Singletary wanted the Committee to know that there is a 2016 Annual report for everyone to be able to take with them and that Cindy Jeanis had did an outstanding job of putting it together. He wanted to the committee members to try the new MILO System and that he will have the Crimestoppers, 100 Club and the Citizen's Police Academy Alumni get a chance to test the new system too.

Chief Jeffcoat introduced Cynthia Miller from the City's purchasing department. He invited her to see the MILO System since she purchased it for the City. Mr. Duerr asked about the MILO System purchase being grant funded. Chief Jeffcoat said that the system was purchased by grant funds and the additional laptop was purchased under confiscated funds. He then gave a brief description about the new system.

Officer Matt Morrow was introduced to the Committee and he gave an overview of our Response to Resistance (Use of Force) policy and procedures along with a power point presentation.

Officer Danny Valdez gave a short demonstration on how the MILO System works.

Meeting ended at 2:34 p.m. with Committee Members trying out the new MILO System.

Next Meeting: Thursday, June 15, 2017 at 1:00 p.m.
