Sandra Womack--Roll Call

Minutes for September 2016 were approved via acclamation.

Jon Reaud- said that we need to have some kind of work session. We need to help our citizens keep open dialogue with the police department. He would like Committee members to talk to the community and let them know if there are any problems they know of that we want to hear about them.

Chairman Reaud introduced Sgt. Cody Guedry and Robert Blackwell for the presentation on Crimestoppers. There is a new app called P3 Global Intel (P3tips), where you can submit tips to Crimestoppers from this app. You can also download it from the Crimestoppers website. Questions were asked by Jon Reaud, Mark Simon, Jr. and Reverend Robinson.

There is a CAPP Forum tonight at Trinity Church located at 10 IH 10 North at 7:00 p.m. Cindy Jeanis passed out different invitations, one is for a Crimestopper Reception on Tuesday, October 25th at 5:00 p.m. BPD nominated the Garth House to receive an award. Also, Saturday, October 29, 2016 we will have a Trunk or Treat and on November 29th there will be a Chief Appreciation Reception at the Event Centre from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Reverend Robinson and Reverend Tubbs both wanted to try to get with other churches and see if they know of any problems occurring in the community that they can present to the committee.

Sandra Womack mentioned that on November 26th there will be a Blue Santa Toy Run and scavenger hunt. Last year they had over $11,000 collected. They are taking donations now. She also mentioned about an incident on Facebook about an all lady motorcycle rally and how the lady over it was complaining about Beaumont Police Department. That problem was fixed.

Benediction: Rev. David Robinson
